

PegasusTSI Parade Provides Support to Autism Speaks

Over 2,600 walkers took over the Museum of Science and Industry on Saturday February 23, 2008 for the Tampa Bay Walk Now for Autism. So far, over $175,000 has been raised at this event and the total is growing quickly.

The supporters of the PegasusTSI Parade contributed over $2,600 in funds and, most importantly, the awareness of Autistic Spectrum Disorders was raised.

Fundraisers included:

- Parking Space Raffle
- Plant Sale
- Bake Sale
- Valentine Sale
- Silent Auction
- Candy Sale
- Piggy Bank Boxes

Autism Speaks is a fantastic organization powered by volunteers and families with loved ones on the autism spectrum. This successful grassroots fundraising effort not only generates vital funds for autism research but also raises awareness about the increasing prevalence of autism and the need for increased research funding to combat this complex disorder.
